

MALAD

Welcome to Malad City, rich in heritage and tradition and the Oneida County Seat. The community is nestled snugly on the east side of Malad Valley, thirteen miles from the Utah/Idaho border along Interstate 15. A community of approximately 2303 residents, Malad still has that “Hometown” atmosphere, where everyone knows each other by their first names and greets you with a smile. Living in Malad will offer a unique opportunity to experience the serenity and fun of a country town.

Fishing is one of Oneida County’s calls to fame. You may also enjoy water skiing, jet skiing, canoeing, boating, and swimming. Malad City’s public lands abound with miles of trails accessible by foot, horseback, and all-terrain vehicles. All in all, camping and outdoor activities in the area are hard to beat and you won’t find crowds here!

The City of Malad has a growing economy. It is a perfect location for small businesses or existing industries that are looking to open a new firm, or to relocate. Employees of local businesses love the small-town atmosphere but also enjoy the comforts that larger cities have to offer as well. Malad draws from a large workforce in a short drive with a history of excellent work ethics.

Distribution is facilitated by the fact that Malad is located between several larger cities, such as Pocatello, Idaho, and Logan, Utah. Salt Lake City is only 1.5 hours by freeway and offers an international Airport. A local airport is available to hop to and from other cities for important meetings or vacations.

Malad City is a short distance from several universities and technical schools. This provides an excellent employee base. (Idaho State University 50 minutes, ISU Applies Tech 50 minutes, Utah State University 45 minutes, Bridgerland Technical/Business College 50 minutes, Weber State University 1 hour, Eastern Idaho Technical College 90 minutes). Malad City - Best Place to live, work, and play!
